GREEN INSIGHTS

At TOPMIX, we provide surface solutions that are aesthetic and practical which is safe for your health and kind to the environment. Our low-emission materials are developed to minimize harmful VOCs, supporting healthier indoor spaces. By choosing TOPMIX, you're opting for a sustainable alternative to traditional materials—helping to preserve natural resources in modern interior design.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Formaldehyde is a type of Volatile Organic Compound (VOC) naturally present in the air at low levels. In manufacturing, a synthetic version is used as adhesive in furniture, plywood, and laminates—often releasing harmful emissions indoors without us knowing. This makes Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) crucial, as poor IAQ can lead to long-term health problems, especially in closed spaces like homes, schools, and offices.

TOPMIX HPL

TOPMIX HPL is certified by UL GREENGUARD, Singapore Green Label and MyHIJAU for low VOC emissions promoting healthier indoor air quality.

TOPMIX MFC E0 GRADE

TOPMIX MFC E0 Grade is a Melamine Faced Chipboard with low emission complete with Anti-Microbial, Anti-Virus protection and High Moisture Resistance (HMR) perfect for safe, durable furniture and interiors.

TOPPLY PVC PLYWOOD E0 GRADE

TOPPLY PVC Plywood E0 Grade engineered to meet the strictest low-emission standards, it significantly improves indoor air quality, making it perfect for homes, schools, hospitals, and other health-conscious environments.

OUR STORY

TOPMIX is where we embrace the "Aesthetic Green Living" concept in interior design. Our objective is simple: to enhance indoor air quality and promote sustainability by offering High Pressure Laminate (HPL) as an eco-conscious alternative to depleting precious natural resources like solid wood, marble, and stone.

Here in TOPMIX, we pride ourselves on being a decorative surface solution provider for all your surface decorative needs. We have a wide range of products that cater to both residential and commercial interior applications.

Galaxy Series - Solid Colors with a Spark of Brilliance

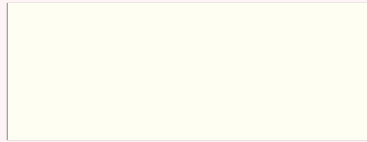

Add a little magic to your everyday with the Galaxy Series- a collection of rich, solid tones kissed with a gentle shimmer that brings subtle elegance to any space. Inspired by the quiet beauty of starlit skies, each color is designed to glow softly as light moves across it, creating moments of warmth, charm, and and modern sophistication. Whether it's a cozy reading nook, a stylish hallway, or a serene bedroom retreat, the Galaxy Series adds just the right touch of sparkle to make your space feel special, lived-in, and uniquely yours. It's more than a surface—it's a feeling.
